Subject: GoCPS Marketing Responsibilities: March 21 – 23, 2018

Dear Colleagues,

Today we will begin providing additional background information and guidance to assist our families when they receive their high school application results on March 30, 2018. Over the last few weeks, we have hosted training sessions for you on the rules and processes regarding high school selections. We have taken this same information and used it to launch a new section of pages on GoCPS that delivers this content in smaller, family-friendly portions using videos and printable PDF guides for each process.

Please review these new pages and their content at <https://go.cps.edu/selection/high-school> to gain additional insights and clarifications for yourself. Please also share this link with your students and families so they can begin familiarizing themselves with the process before they leave for Spring Break. These videos and guides can serve as great classroom or workshop resources that you can play and review together in order to help students and families understand their options.

Also included with the launch of these new pages is an updated timeline for key dates relating to Round 1 and Round 2 high school results notifications and processes. You can find this full timeline on the GoCPS home page under Important Dates.

For this week, we would like you to please complete the activities highlighted in green below:

3/21 - Instruction Email: GoCPS team delivers weekly instructions

3/22 - Emails: Deliver emails to 8th grade students and parents

3/22 - Web News Post: Post news stories to website

3/22 - Social Media: Post to social media pages

Best wishes,

Resources to Help You Manage High School Results

High school results will be released on 3/30/18. Check out the new High School Selection page to learn how to manage them.

High School Results Released on Friday, March 30, 2018

Round 1 high school results will be released to families on Friday, March 30, 2018. If the student applied online, results will be posted on their online GoCPS account. If they applied with a paper application, a notification letter will be sent to the primary address on their application via U.S. mail. In addition, an online GoCPS account has been opened for each paper applicant, and their results will be posted there as well.

Families will have until Friday, April 13, 2018, to accept or decline offers. To view a full timeline of high school results notifications and processes, visit the GoCPS home page and view our updated Important Dates section.

Understanding High School Results

GoCPS has a new page called High School Selection that was created to help you understand the processes behind high school selections and results notifications. This page includes a series of videos and illustrated guides that will walk you through important topics like high school matching factors and program admissions processes. Take some time to review this content before you leave for Spring Break so you can start understanding your options.
